The vanity area on the left features a long, dark grey countertop with two white, rectangular vessel sinks. The countertop is supported by a white vanity cabinet with a dark grey floating shelf underneath. Above the sinks, a large, dark grey-framed mirror is mounted on the wall. To the right of the mirror, a dark grey towel rack is mounted on the wall. Below the towel rack, a black shower head is visible in the shower area.

The shower area on the right is enclosed by a glass shower enclosure with a dark grey frame. A black shower head is mounted on the wall above the shower. A dark grey towel rack is mounted on the wall above the shower, holding a white towel. Below the towel rack, a black shower head is visible in the shower area.
